Geography	Create a selection of revision resources It is never too early to revise! For GCSE Geography, students will be provided with a blank A4 booklet and asked to prepare a selection of revision resources for the units they have covered in Paper 1 'Living with the Physical Environment'. This will be examined in Year 11. Although there will be official revision guides to purchase (a link to these will be sent out at a later date) students always benefit from condensing their notes into a format which suits them. There will be a lesson dedicated to the explanation of the homework tasks and students will be shown basic revision techniques such as how to create an effective mind map, how to condense a case study and how to create a glossary of key terms. If after this point a student still feels unsure of how to complete revision activities then they should see a member of staff in the Geography department and also remember that there are 1 hour sessions after school on Tuesdays which are targeted at offering this kind of support. There will be an opportunity for students to get some feedback on their work at the halfway stage of their homework, so it is heavily recommended that the tasks are done from the start date of the homework and not left until the final week!! If any student wishes to discuss the task they should contact a member of the geography department as soon as possible.	6 hours	30/10/2017	18/12/2017
